

Please leave Wisconsin's No Call Law alone. Prior to the no call legislation I stopped answering the phone because most of the calls were telemarketers who often were rude. The worst of the offenders - Banks! I can now answer my telephone with peace knowing it's someone who actually wants or needs to talk to me. Leave the WI Law alone! And expand the restrictions to cell phones!